Let's Dig In!: Finally A Cookbook Honoring Cheese

Let's Dig In!
Finally a Cookbook Honoring
Cheese
By Daniel Humphreys

Synopsis

If you love cheese as much as I do, you must be extremely excited to open up this book and discover some amazing and tasty cheese recipes. I grew up with a father who just simply loved anything that came from the deli: deli meats, breads, cheeses, fish spreads, and more. I opened the fridge as a young girl and there was always at least one intriguing piece of cheese staring at me: brie, Munster, Camembert, blue cheese, Havarti, Swiss, and many more. As a daddy's girl, I had no resistance into tasting every single one of them. Blue cheese back then wasn't my favorite, but that's quite normal for a kid. Now, though, I can't think of any cheeses I do not like. This cheese cookbook is very special, because it does include 25 of my favorite recipes ever- some borrowed from my mother, some from my aunts, my friends, and even one from my neighbor. Enjoy every single one!

Customer Reviews

Misleading title and picture. Thought it was a book about recipes to make actual cheese, not very basic common sense recipes that involve cheese as an ingredient. Mac and cheese? Cheesy hashbrowns? Groundbreaking stuff.
