Fran Jurcak, RN, MSN, CCDS, is a director in CDI Solutions at Huron Healthcare, a division of Huron Consulting in Chicago and a former project manager with J. A. Thomas and Associates. She served as a member of the CCDS Certification Committee since 2010, and was recently chosen to serve on the ACDIS Advisory Board. Jurcak has implemented successful CDI programs in more than 50 hospital systems in the past five years. With more than 25 years of nursing experience, Jurcak has clinical experience in critical care and emergency medicine, and taught as an assistant professor of nursing at Madonna University in Livonia, MI, for more than 15 years. She was among the first CDI specialists to earn the CCDS certification in 2009.

This was a helpful guide as I studied to take my CCDS exam. However, I was very surprised at the number of misspelled words and obvious lack of proof-reading or editing prior to publication. For the money it is not a great example of a "polished, professional" product.

I was thinking that there would be more test questions. I would like more of what I actually would experience in the test environment Lacking, not enough content to be considered a study guide for the CCDS. Very disappointed, certainly not worth the cost.

Was disappointed in the content of the exam book. Would have liked to have seen more in depth clinical references. Very over priced for what you get.

I used this guide and I don't want to give it all the credit, but I passed this test the first time I took it.

Great

excellent book. hope it helps me pass the exam. great information for taking the exam. will provide more feedback later.

The only issue was the price of this item. I need it for work, so I had no choice. But it was just what I needed.
