Customer Reviews

This book contains virtually nothing of value if you have spent more than 20 minutes searching for information on becoming an expat in Mexico. The book is thin and appears to contain about 50 pages, then you find out that huge fonts are used so there is actually far less information than you originally thought. With shipping I paid more than $16 for this book. I would have felt ripped off if I'd paid $2 for it. Junk. Don't buy.

I hit those stars by mistake. I never received this book and there is no way to contact about it.

Ripped off!

Waste of money. Everything in the book is available online.

Lots of grammar mistakes, but it still makes sense. I like the recommendations for starting your own business in Mexico, would have liked to see this expanded a little more.

Not, of course, comprehensive, but as an introduction to Mexico and Guatemala, it fills the bill. Unfortunately, it's crawling with typographical errors.
