Reliable, readable Rough Guides Conde Nast Traveller

I have just spent 6 weeks in Provence (April/May 2014) and found this reference invaluable. It is so well written and contained interesting information on just about every town and area I visited. The author is not afraid to make a negative comment if required. I would recommend this as a great planning tool and also reference (on kindle) to take with you when touring.

junk read

We traveled only in Nice and on the Cote d'Azure and this guide was just okay for that area. Not bad, but somehow insufficiently focused on what I needed. (Rick Steves was much better.)

fairly complete guide book. useful
