I can't imagine how anyone could give this guide less than 5 stars. It made me want to pack my bag and go to Porto immediately. Really useful list of 55 things to do there with all the detail necessary. Thank you to the author!

I would like to visit Porto the second largest city of Portugal. In this guide there is a lot of useful information about this city. Also, the author describes a lot of places in this city with an amazing way! I learned many secrets for the Porto and I saw perfect pictures which they including inside. It's my next destination!

I love the book. It is well and concisely written. More importantly, it allows you to live vicariously and experience the best places (and secrets) in Porto, through the vantage point of the author.

A well-written, informative guide that belongs in the collection of every globetrotter and on the reference list of every travel agent. Beautifully illustrated. Captures the essence of what is truly a gem of a city. A must-read for the adventurers among us. Thumbs up!

I was going to pass just one day in Porto before I got to Lisbon. After buying this book it completely changed my mind and I booked more time in Porto than in Lisbon. It showed me amazing places and restaurants that I couldn't find in my first search about Porto.

I've lived in Porto for 6 years, and I have to say this bucket list is awesome, definitely the best places in and around Porto! The most important stuff is mentioned along with the best secrets only locals know about. Congrats António!

For tourists

A very useful guide for whom wants to discover secret spots of the beautiful and lovely city of Porto. A must read for new visitor and for those who didn't explore the whole city and what the best Porto has to offer.
