Customer Reviews

We are in Dublin now and have found this guide to be the most up-to-date and accurate. An indispensable aid. The section covering day trips is very valuable. Do not miss the Giant's Causeway in Northern Ireland, just awesome.

After reading several travel guides, I was totally impressed with this Eyewitness Guidebook. It basically narrowed down the best attractions of Dublin, as well as other major areas around Ireland. We visited 8 out of the 10 recommended and we were NOT disappointed in any of them. We also ate at several of the restaurants & pubs that were listed in the guide and were very pleased with the quality of food in all of them. I will definitely buy additional "Top Ten" books for other places we plan to visit.

I love this book and I work in a library. Portable, too.

it has everything including maps to easily carry with you when you visit.

When running short on time, terrific summary of places and things to do

This turned out to be the only book I needed when I was in Dublin Ireland. I have use Eyewitness for all of my trips and they have always been accurate and useful.

These guidebooks are well organized, beautifully illustrated, well equipped (pullout map!), and small enough to carry with you. I always purchase a Top 10 guidebook if one is available for my destination.

Can never go wrong with a DK Eyewitness travel guide, and Dublin Top Ten is a must for any traveler to Dublin.
