Great book for my third grade son. We used it for a book report. He liked the "real" pictures. Well done. And I'm a Republican! Children need to learn to respect the political process.

I love these books. I'm constantly looking for interesting nonfiction texts for my classroom. These are perfect for my third graders and they can not get enough of them. Kids are constantly coming up to me and telling me new facts that they have learned from the books in this series. Great for science, reading, social studies, history, vocabulary, etc. Highly recommended!

I used the book for a school project with my grandson. He enjoyed the not so famous tidbits about Obama . For instance, Obama does not like to eat ice cream anymore after working in a ice cream store! He also enjoyed answering the questions at the end. The biography was presented with a child in mind.

My son had to do a biography report on presidents and after reading reviews, thought that this would be a good fit. Has all the biographical details but an easy read for children in language that isn't intimidating and explained well. Definitely helped him with writing up his report, so much so, he became a real fan of the president.

Kids really enjoy the facts and colorful pictures. Gets them more engaged on to learn about our favorite president.

Perfect for 5/6 year olds.

My 2nd grader had a project on Barack Obama. This book gave almost every detail that he needed, and he could follow the information very well. There were also great definitions for terms that a 7-year-old would never know.

Short but informative book about Barack Obama. My kids (ages 3 & 7) enjoy the pictures and quick facts in the National Geographic Kids books. We are studying the 44 presidents and this was a great little addition to our studies.
