Customer Reviews

This is a powerfully written, hope filled lesson written by an author both passionate and knowledgeable about his topic. He takes the story of Adam and explores his choices and options as a foreshadowing of Christ's own journey and sacrifice. This book is interesting in a way that makes me want to pick up my Bible and read a little deeper into familiar passages. A 'first-chair' effort!

I started reading this book and I was afraid to put it down!!! Why? I thought I was going to miss something. What an awesome author/person who will allow God to use him in such a manner. For this book to have all of this information the author had to be inspired by God and anointed by God. It is so complete and it offers revelations that are needed as Christian matures. I recommend this book if you are searching for the complete picture and a better understanding of purpose and fulfillment with God.

The book is written where all generations can understand God's purpose was filled for everyone. I personally got a deeper understanding of God and His purpose for me. I enjoyed the book so til I recommended it to several family members and friends. If you haven't read it please do. You will be pleased and your light will shine brighter with a better understanding of God's purpose for you.
