John MacArthur is a stimulating, thoughtful, and insightful Bible commentator. His studies are preferred for individual and group studies. As a facilitator and study leader, his material encourages me in deeper research and preparation. The books of Ruth and Esther are richly broken down to show God's providence at work. Our group has enjoyed the process and participation has been high. There are layers of spiritual knowledge to discover, and this study out of John MacArthur's series will not disappoint. As with any study, you meet people at their current level of experience and move them forward...this book is very adaptable.

This was a great bible study if you are looking to mirror your life after some prominent women in the bible! The questions it has you answer and think about are very thought provoking !
