This appears to be the last hardbound hymnal for individual congregational singing published by Unity Church, back in the Eighties. (Later songbooks run toward softcover and of course Unity, like many other denominations, now uses a lot of light-projection of verses in its worship services.) WINGS OF SONG is not a thick or heavy hymnal, but it embodies a surprisingly traditional selection of mostly Protestant hymns with decent four-part harmony and lots of well-loved Christmas carols. People who snag a copy at a good price may well find it useful at the piano or for all-around hymn singing. I got mine here and am glad I did.

Yes, I received the hymnal prior to the expected rate. It was in beautiful condition and met my needs for choir practice. Thank you!!

Fabulous thank you
