Customer Reviews

These Key Stage 3 books offer information and activities about the six major world religions. The foundation edition for lower-ability pupils has been edited by a special needs consultant: the text is simpler and the print size is larger, reflecting the lower reading age of the foundation students. Questions in each section allow students to consolidate their learning. The books are beautifully produced with high quality photographs. Information is accurate and the books are written to conform to the QCA model syllabuses, so RE teachers will find them very useful. J Erricher

Mel Thompson is an experienced author and examiner.
