Whether you believe it's Mary revealing these prophesies or not, it's the most extensive about what is going to happen in the near future. If you observe clearly what is going on in the world now economically, spiritually, and physically in nature, you will realize that we are in the 11th hour, and need to begin making preparations just in case it is true. Those who do not, will have a rude awakening when the frequency and intensity of nature keeps showing us her way of cleansing this toxic earth. Do not be dismayed at the fact the dates for these changes have passed already by the many who have predicted them earlier, because prayer and meditation are what has staved them off a bit longer, so we can prepare, and so the tribulation time is shorter than planned.

Great read, I enjoyed the historical significance and Mary's personal discussion of her life giving birth and raising Jesus.

You all need to read this book....

In light of everything going on in the world, this book will reaffirm the power of prayer. I would recommend it to those who share a deep spiritual connection to God and those who are concerned about the direction our country is heading.

Important message.

I loaned this to a friend some years ago and never got it back...was so thrilled to see it on and at a reasonable price. One of my all time favorites especially in these days. Do yourself a favorite and read this soon!!

Jesus will be walking around on earth with us. There will be only love for 1000 years in this new era. A whole new, much more advanced civilization and a healed earth.

I truly believe this is no hoax. If everyone would read this book, WE would all be in a better place and a higher tolerance of the world around us. Pray for our Nation and the World.
