The alarm sounds. Fire! Fire! Big trucks roll out of the firehouse and race to the scene. Out come the soft hoses and aerial ladders. Whether the fire is in the city or in the country, on the waterfront or in a deep forest, firefighters are on the scene in moments, ready to attack the blaze.

My son loves loves loves this book. It tells you how fires are fought in different places like the city or forest. Very interesting.

I love Gail Gibbons, her books are perfect for science classes.

My four year old loves anything and everything fire fighters. I couldn't resist purchasing a book by an author we love Gail Gibbons. The author does a wonderful job with illustrations that are fascinating and informative along with explanations that a young child can understand. This book does a great job explaining different types of fires and then gives information to the child about what to do in a fire emergency. My son loves this book.

This book is great for showing children (and adults) how different areas fight fires, ie. a barn fire, a dock fire, a building fire. There realistic illustrations. It shows all different equipment used in fighting fires. Good good and recommended for preschool/kindergarten age.

I purchased this book for my 3 year old son with the intent to acquaint him with exactly what firefighters and their apparatus do. I recently joined our local volunteer fire department and my son has been afraid of the sirens of our nearby station for a while now. This book was a big hit with him and me! This book organization of this book gives it 4 sections for paid (city), volunteer (country), forest and harbor departments. My son loves the illustrations and sits and listens intently to the descriptions. Each page contains illustrations displaying smoke detectors, hoses, personnel, and fire equipment that are all well labeled. This is a must buy if you need a firefighters book for your child!

I read this book to my grandson yesterday and both of us enjoyed learning about how different types of fires are contained. Informative with great illustrations.

This is a replacement. We love the pictures and her choice and selection of words. The Firefighter told us "it was the real deal" but, of course my kids had already judged it as such!

Sometimes too long for the younger students.
