Music Through The Grades: In The Light Of The Developing Child

Synopsis

This is a wonderful new resource book for Steiner-Waldorf teachers for Classes 1 to 8. Over 200 songs have been hand-picked by Diane Ingraham Barnes, an experienced Waldorf teacher and musician, to guide and inspire teachers in their lesson preparation. The book is arranged by grade, carefully following the natural development of children at different ages. Within each year, the songs are arranged seasonally, presenting teachers with ideal material for every stage of the school year. In addition, the book comes with three audio CDs, one each for Classes 1 to 3. They feature fine performances by Diane, often accompanied by flute, percussion or lyre, and will assist teachers who don't easily read music -- as well as providing further inspiration for those who do.

Customer Reviews

Diane Ingraham Barnes is a singer and musician. She has been a Waldorf music teacher and choral conductor for thirty years. She lives in New York State.

We are new to Waldorf homeschooling and this book has been a big help in choosing and learning appropriate songs to sing. It is arranged by grade and the songs go along with the traditional themes for each grade level. There is sheet music plus it also comes with CDs that have the songs. Great quality, you won't be disappointed.
