Customer Reviews

Chockful of easy to make recipes! I liked that the recipes are made from ingredients found in most kitchens. Some of the soups were rather intriguing as I've never tried to make a soup from squashes. The recipes appear to be very easily made. Nicely put together. If you're looking to add a few new items your Thanksgiving or fall parties.. this is a fantastic cookbook to look over and try out a few new recipes!

There are so many wonderful recipes in this book, I decided to only select a few for the sake of brevity: Pear, Avocado, and Roquefort salad is a particular favorite of mine. The sweet tangy flavors of this notable cheese is pleasantly complemented by the creamy mild Avocado and livened up with a bite of pear. Soups: I tried the award-winning french onion soup. While this soup isn't generally my favorite (my husband loves it!) I found myself really enjoying this. I think that these soups are often a little bit too sour for me, but this soup had a delicate balance of flavors. One particular recipe that caught my eye were the roasted eggs in a half-bell pepper. I've never tried baking eggs before, even though I've seen scores of them on Pinterest. I highly recommend this particular recipe for a light, healthy breakfast that you can mostly prepare in advance. I thoroughly enjoyed the cedar plank grilled salmon, though I would recommend adding 2 teaspoons of ginger and garlic instead of just 1. But that's just my own preference. The crock-pot beef roast is a staple in modern households - but this recipe will have your little ones asking for seconds.

Thanksgiving is one of my favorite days to eat. I love all of the traditional foods but thought I would look for something to add to the favorites this year. The book contains some classic Sunday dinner items and other items that are Thanksgiving with a twist, like chocolate chip pumpkin bread, Yum! some others I liked were warm fudge cheesecake and egg nog cheesecake (definitely getting made) sausage cornbread stuffing, chocolate dipped espresso meringues. Really there are so many, that you could have thanksgiving everyday.

If you are looking for a complete overview of gourmet dinner recipes, don't look any further. This is your book. It contains many lovely recipes to prepare a great thanksgiving dinner that will surprise and impress your guests. Although it is not thanksgiving yet I am going to try a few this week!

Totally non-intimidating but delicious recipes along with clear instructions. Recipes in this book are really effortless and one can easily make it in few minutes. Its a great gift book as well as a keeper in anyone's kitchen.

This recipe book is jam-packed with great ideas for the chilly fall and winter. Not only are there great Thanksgiving recipes, but also soups, salads, and tasty side dishes. My favorite is Butternut soup, but the Chocolate Dipped Espresso Meringues are a close second!

This book is a wonderful collection of really tasty recipes for vegetarians, vegans, or meat lovers. It also covers a full course meal from appetizer, main course to lots of dessert options! I would recommend it.

Very good collection of recipes, with detailed instructions that you can prepare on Thanksgiving.
