My Aunt had this older cook book and I was so excited to get a copy of it. I use it all the time. Great down to earth cooking.

Searched everywhere for this after my old copy went missing during a house move. Some absolutely fabulous recipes, my favorite being the Gumbo

I had been encouraged by a friend to buy this cookbook. I bought it solely on her recommendation without even reading the description. I was very pleased to find out that the recipes are real family recipes from Louisiana. I can't wait to start cooking like a real Cajun.

Got it. Love it. The vegetarian dishes are so plentiful and delicious. Just don't use MSG!

I was torn between this and River Road... I'm keeping this one! Good variety of food, no weird ingredients, timeless recipes!

This is a wonderful book brimming with great home style recipes. Truly very Southern. The only problem was the plastic spiral binding. Like most well used books these bindings tend to break after awhile. Gently use is recommended on used books with these bindings.

I'm looking forward to cooking these recipes and sharing them with friends.

I've just thumbed through this so far, haven't tried any of the recipes but they look delicious! Reminds me of the dishes my southern mom made when I was a child. The book came in great condition and on time.
