A Question Of Love

Synopsis

When Laura Quick is picked to host a quirky new quiz show on prime-time TV, nothing prepares her for one of the contestants - her ex-boyfriend, Luke. She's still getting over the loss of her husband Nick, in mysterious circumstances, three years before. So what does the still-gorgeous Luke's arrival, complete with six year old daughter and badly behaved ex-wife mean for Laura? Her sisters think he's the perfect man for her to move on with. But Laura finds more questions than answers as she wonders whether to risk everything on Luke a second time, what really happened to Nick, and how much she truly knows about her sisters' increasingly complicated lives. The re-issued fifth novel from the internationally best-selling author of 'A Vintage Affair'.

Customer Reviews

In true Isabel Wolff style, this novel is fresh, clever, and romantic. Her writing smooth, her characters are extremely likable. Her plots are complicated. She weaves together varied and illusary themes into each scene. A very satisfying read.

Laura's life is in flux. A new job as a game show host, an old flame reappearing, and family drama, its no wonder that her life feels like its gone crazy. Laura becomes one of your girlfriends by the end of the book. Cute, funny, and a bit of a mess, you can't help laughing at her inner monologue as her life spins out of control. Full of fun characters, the story is a perfect mix of hilarity and interesting twists to keep you hooked. This is the perfect beach read book and one I'd highly recommend when looking to grab that book that will bring a smile to your face.

I read every Isabelle Wolff I can get my hands on.

great reading! not as frenetic as the trials of tiffany trott. I've read all of her books including the very picture of you and vintage affair. can't get enough.

yes

Very entertaining! A bittersweet romance.
