He has sold over 20 million books (in 38 languages), and The 7 Habits of Highly Effective People was named the #1 Most Influential Business Book of the Twentieth Century. His most recent major book, The 8th Habit, has sold nearly 400,000 copies. He holds an MBA from Harvard, and doctorate degree from Brigham Young University. He is the co-founder and vice chairman of FranklinCovey, the leading global professional services firm with offices in 123 countries. He lives with his wife and family in Utah.

This audiobook is a basic rehash of the 7 habits of highly effective people, set in the aftermath of 9/11. The material is OK, and if you are a Covey fan, the audiobook might be somewhat interesting. Having said that, it isn't a great stand alone work, and really could use more meat and less Covey advertising.
