Billye Brim was born again at the age of eight in 1947 and was brought up to love God and His Word. After her initial in-filling of the Holy Spirit in 1967, she began the journey of fulfilling the call of God on her life. Billye served as editor of publications for Kenneth Hagin Ministries from 1970 to 1980, as well as editing books for several other well-known Bible teachers including Dr. Lester Sumrall. In 1972 she began ministering regularly at her local church in Collinsville, Oklahoma. In 1980 she began traveling full time both nationally and internationally, with her focal points in Scandinavia and Europe. She has also ministered seven times in the Soviet Union. After the homegoing of her husband in 1986, the Lord led Billye to study Hebrew in Israel. Working primarily through a Jewish ulpan (special language school), she takes Christians to Israel at least twice a year to see modern-day Israel through Jewish eyes. Bible prophecy is an important part of Billye's teaching. Billye is a frequent conference speaker (numerous times of Brother Kenneth Copeland's Believers Conventions) and ministers in churches, Bible schools, family camps, and on television. The emphasis of her ministry is on the Glory of God and His Glorious Church. She truly loves the Body of Christ and desires to see it become the Glorious Church Jesus promised to receive unto Himself.

Billye Brim explains the message of the book in a clear concise way. Has helped me understand the need for the Blood of Jesus in our lives.Highly recommend this book. Can change your life for the better.

I purchased and read this book when I was traveling to Nigeria for ministry. When I returned, I discovered few days later around 3:00am when I got up to use the bathroom, I felt a solid presence of someone in my house. I knew someone was downstairs. I was alone with three of my children upstairs. With the fresh revelation of the power of the blood of Jesus, I said: In the name of Jesus Father, I cover my family in the Blood of Jesus and returned to bed with no second thought. In fact, I was already dozing off when I uttered those words. In the morning, I mentioned it to my children that someone was in our house last night. I purchased a bottle of virgin olive oil as a token of the Blood of Jesus, blessed it and anointed all the entrances to our house. From the balcony upstairs, I poured the entire bottle in front of the basement door (that was the entrance the person used even though their was nothing like forced entry). I poured it in front of the door, I declared: If death hurricane, disaster, angel of death gets here, they shall see the Blood and shall pass over. No unclean thing will enter our house, the LORD's heritage; no evil shall befall us and no plague shall come near our dwelling"."I tried changing the lock to the entrance that leads to the basement, I messed it up. So I took a very heavy dining table we had and blocked the entrance, and brought my beddings downstairs. Exactly at 9:00pm, the door moved but the table stopped it. I noticed it few minutes later. I continued to anoint every entrance : windows and doors everyday with the Blood of Jesus and declaring that if disaster, earthquake, hurricane, death, burglar comes upon this house, they shall see the Blood and shall pass over. I followed this up with daily sharing of communion with my children every morning before they left for school.while on this, my second daughter sneaked out of the house around 5pm on a very windy evening. It was a bit dark and sneaked out thrugh the basement to buy something from a s nearby store. She had the basement key. So she unlocked it, and carefully locked it back so I would not know she sneaked out. But when she was returning, the door was completely ajar. She reported the situation to me. At this point, I took a heavy wood (a piece of the double decked bed that I could not put together) and blocked the door -one end resting upon the doorknob while the other end rested on the heating and cooling system. There's no how someone could push it open. a couple of nights later or more, they came with a car around 3:00am and began to drill through the door. I noticed it later even though my daughter whose room upstairs was towards that end tried to tell me that people were drilling through the basement door. The next morning when I went there, I saw red finger prints on the door with signs of forced attempted entry...I don't knw what they used, but it left caused little damage on the door edges as they tried to force it open with a kind of metal.Now this burglar (s) became restless and started coming at odd hours. My daughter leaving messages on my phone. My battery was down and I was 45mins away from home. As soon as I charged my phone in the car and was returning around 7pm, I discovered that since 5pm, the man had been trying to break into our house. Our house phone was not in order and my daughter was sending the message to me through computer. She was fifteen as the time. She could not call the police. She was hitting the neighbor's wall to help her call police. Our neighbors seem to know what was going on and it looked like something planned (not sure of that). as some as I arrived and packed my car in front of the house and entered the house, my daughter said: shhh! listen. I listened and heard noises on the basement door, someone trying to break in. I asked them to close the door behind me and jumped into my car and drove straight to the backyard. We lived on a row of townhouses, and so our neighbors who lived behind us also lived on row of townhouses. Our basement door faced their backyard so that from our balcony, we are face to face with them. I left my car on as I stepped ut of my car in front of my basement door and began to scarily take one step, still pleading the Blood of Jesus, and another towards my basement door. As I was slowly moving towards the door not being sure what might happen to me the next minute, I managed to get to the door and ty to push it to see if the man succeeded in entering into our basement, but it was still locked. As I turned to return to my car, two people were standing next to my car watching me... a man and a woman. They were my neighbors from the opposite rows of the townhouses. I asked them if they saw the person trying to break into our house: they did not see anything, they said. As I was about to return into y car, I saw the bugler. A strong looking white male in his forties, wearing a brown winter jacket with his two hands in his pockets. He was directly face to face with me. he had just emerged from my next door basement and as he was looking at me, he was moving very swiftly towards the front yard. I jumped into the car and drove back. I would have to drive two blocks to return to my house bc of one way traffic on our street. But as soon as I flashed my car light on my door, I saw this man trying to open our house from the front and soon as the light shone on him, he jumped out of the door and within a twinkle of an eye, he was gone. I pursued him with the car but he vanished in my neighbor's basement again for as soon as he got there, he disappeared. I called police. They warned me for all my actions instead of calling them at the first signs of these especially when they left those marks on the door. I had to confront my neighbor, the man looked like her. I know she lived alone, but this man showed up from her basement. She denied knowing anything.Another day, the man showed up again in the evening time between 5 and 6pm. I think he does that when I go out. According to one of my daughters, as he was trying again to force the door open, a small girl from an opposite house screamed. He was startled. My daughter dashed to the balcony and saw the same man walking away. they called the police and the description was the same man. One of my white opposite neighbors who watches every "ant" that passes in the neighborhood finally related to me that they asked the man why he was trying to break into my house when they saw him, and he answered them that he was not going to hurt me but wanted to ask me questions. I asked my neighbor why the man comes at nights, and through the basement door instead of the front door. Why does he come at night and not during the day; and why does he run when someone sees him. He threw his hands in the air and said I don't know and walked back int the house. God delivered us from this man...whatever was his mission.Three weeks into my anointing our house with the Blood of Jesus and still consistently declaring that no evil, death, burglar, hurricane will touch our enter our house, Hurricane Sandy struck. We watched everything on TV. We lived in Norristown in Pennsylvania at the time. Not even a branch of a tree fell on our end. Many blocks away, we saw fallen trees or branches, and some people lost light. We were completely safe. All we had was light rain and wind. The LORD rescued us out of that place. he made us leave that place in a hurry. It was like delivering the people of Israel from Egypt so that the left in a hurry. That's how we left. thank God for the power in the Blood of Jesus.Other powerful books:https://www..com/GOD-ARISE-BATTLES-BELONG-LORD-ebook/dp/B00HTDW1GC/ref=sr_1_7?s=books&ie=UTF8&qid=1472842202&sr=1-7&keywords=archbishop+gloria+gracehttps://www..com/GOD-HEARS-ANSWERS-Gloria-Grace-ebook/dp/B00670XD1A/ref=la_B015A2SZX6_1_3?s=books&ie=UTF8&qid=1472845990&sr=1-3

There are few good books about the blood of Jesus and how Christians can rely upon it for protection in dangerous situations. Billye Brim clarifies how to do that and why Christians should "plead" the blood every single day. She explains the tremendous impact of doing so and includes personal anecdotes that illustrate what happens. Highly recommended.

One of the best books I've ever read. It brought back to me stories and memories from my time in church as a child. She teaches and explains in plain understanding and with heartfelt joy for the Blood of Jesus and the Glory of God. I recommend this book for anyone looking for the Power of the Blood of Jesus Christ. Not only as a weapon God has given us against Satan but as a gift of eternal life that he paid through His Blood. Read this even if you been saved for a while, saved brand new or looking to be saved or soul searching for your longing place to be. Thank you Father and thank you Billye for this book!

All I know is that this has truly blessed my family and me! I've shared this with family and friends all over the world!!! God bless you and your ministry Brim Billye!!!

I have this book in paperback form so was really happy it came out in e-book format so I can have it on my Kindle, my Fire, my computer, and my telephone. I like the way Ms. Brim explains what "pleading the Blood" means (a form of protection and so much more). If you know anything about this topic, this book is an excellent way to refresh your knowledge and keep it at the forefront of your mind. If you don't, then it is easy to read, very informative (and scriptural), and she shares stories as examples to help your understanding. I like the author's writing style and think you will learn a lot if you purchase this book to learn more about the topic! Every Christian (everyone, too) needs this life changing book!

This book is a must read. It is timeless and provides very needed information for the day and time we live in. It is well written and an easy read. It will be a book that I will read again and use for reference.

Thank you Billye Brim for this awesome book,. There where answers in this book that I had asked the Father!!! I am sending it around my family to read!!! Every person who love Jesus Christ needs to read, the blood and the glory is what we will for these end days!!!
