Escaping The USA

Synopsis

From middle class to food bank, both with college degrees and nowhere to go but down in the US financial debacle. We took a flyer and booked a two-month exploratory visit to Baja Norte, Mexico with all the US negative hype about murder and mayhem weighing heavily but not for long. Packed up bag and baggage in 2011 and moved to Rosarito to begin a new life at sixty-six and seventy-four years of age. With social security firmly in hand we began a new life of lower prices, perfect weather, peaceful ocean living, beautiful people both American and Mexican as well as European and wrote a diary of our experiences. Our book is full of good stuff to know and funny experiences in our foreign country only twenty-five minutes from San Diego. Come along with us and if you decide to join our community, welcome to the good life in beautiful Baja.

Customer Reviews

I loved this book. It was extremely useful during my recent vacation to Rosarito Beach. Funny too!

I absolutely loved this book & could not put it down! I now know where I will be vacationing and eventually retiring...

I really enjoyed this book. I could relate to most everything written, in this entertaining book. I also have read several other books by ex pats from Baja. We also live near Rosarito for the last almost 8 yrs. We also ran into the very similar problems that brought Bunny & David to Baja. Everything written was so familiar. Anyone considering moving to Baja, should read this first and not believe what is in the US PAPERS.

Take a look at this:Travel WarningU.S. DEPARTMENT OF STATEBureau of Consular Affairs[...]Northern MexicoBaja California (north): Tijuana and Mexicali are major cities/travel destinations in the state of Baja California -see map to identify their exact locations: You should exercise caution in the northern state of Baja California, particularly at night. For the one-year period ending July 2012, the number of murders in Mexicali increased by 43%, from 127 to 181, over the preceding year. The number of murders in the city of Tijuana was 351 for the same period. In the majority of these cases, the killings appeared to be related to narcotics trafficking. Targeted TCO assassinations continue to take place in Baja California. Turf battles between criminal groups resulted in assassinations in areas of Tijuana frequented by U.S. citizens. Shooting incidents, in which innocent bystanders have been injured, have occurred during daylight hours. Twenty-five U.S. citizens were the victims of homicide in the state in the 12-month period ending July 2012.
