Stephen Finkis executive director of the Center for Educational Leadership and affiliate associate professor in the College of Education at the University of Washington, Seattle. Anneke Markholt is associate director of the Center for Educational Leadership and an affiliate faculty member at the University of Washington in the department of Educational Leadership and Policy Studies.

Good ideas and tips for improvement. It looks at the roles everyone in a school district plays in increasing student achievement.

Fair. There are some good parts, but other texts are better suited to leadership.

If you are an administrator in a Washington school district that has selected the CEL 5D+ for the new teacher evaluation system, this book is a must. No ifs, ands or buts about it. Loaded with useful information easy to digest and understand.

Great product.

I LOVED

This is my first purchase of a Kindle book for me. It is very easy to use, although I am still figuring out the ins and outs of highlighting and so forth, and it's hard to compare where we are if I am discussing the book with coworkers and they reference a page number. There may be a way to fix that, I'm just new to Kindle. Great book, fits in well with what we are doing with my school.

If you're an administrator seeking to perfect your craft and coach teachers, this is a must have.
