Oregon [Tubed] (National Geographic Reference Map)

Synopsis

National Geographic's wall map of Oregon brings the rich and diverse topography of the state to life in elegant detail. Mountain ranges, prominent peaks, major lakes, rivers, and reservoirs, and other geographic features are highlighted. In addition to hundreds of place names, this map includes the precise locations of cities, major roadways and railways, airports, and national and state parks. Stunning shaded relief and vibrant colorization distinguishes mountain ranges, forests, deserts, valleys, and other physical topography. The Pacific Crest Trail, a long-distance hiking and equestrian trail that runs through the entire state from the border with California into Washington, is shown as well. This striking map would be an attractive addition to any study or office. The map is packaged in a two inch diameter clear plastic tube. The tube has a decorative label showing a thumbnail of the map with dimensions and other pertinent information. Map Scale = 1:725,765 Sheet Size = 40.5" x 30.25"

Founded in 1915 as the Cartographic Group, the first division of National Geographic, National Geographic Maps has been responsible for illustrating the world around us through the art and science of mapmaking. Today, National Geographic Maps continues this mission by creating the world's best wall maps, recreation maps, atlases, and globes which inspire people to care about and explore their world.

Gorgeous map. I just had it framed. I took away one star for the paper stock quality. Really thin and fragile. It seems everyone is skimping on paper these days, but I had hoped Nat Geo would be different. Nonetheless, once you get it framed that's not an issue unless you live to be 150 years old. ;-)

Love this map. It is much thinner paper than I had expected. Take care in pinning and mounting the map because it tears very easily. Otherwise it is beautiful and very detailed. My friends and I are using it to track and pin all of our hiking trips throughout Oregon.

Bought for my husband's office. Found a frame at Walmart and just barely needed to trim two of the sides. Looks nice!

We mounted this map on foam core and are using pins to mark where we have gone in the state. We want to move there and this map makes it easy to see where the mountains and water are. Love it.

I am using it to keep track of our companies offices. The detail is nice and it is exactly what I was looking for. Worth the money to me.

Easy to read and we enjoy marking our visits across the state. Would recommend this version, easy to read and looks nice on the wall.

perfect for my friend who moved to oregon
