This is a beautiful book with great ideas, thorough descriptions and beautiful pictures

This is a good book to obtain ideas about how and what to plant for specific types of areas. I look forward to an update that describes flowering cycles of the plants used in the descriptions and more ideas for hard to plant areas such as large slopes, woodlands,etc.

This is my second copy. Loaned my first out, well, I hope they're enjoying it. It's a great tool for people who aren't good at visualizing a planted space or for those who just don't know what to put in the ground.I've used two of plans so far and substituted similar plants and the results are wonderful. We need a new patio space in our place in Maine and will use the book for that too. I'm also using it as a planning tool to create my new garden in Maine. Cant' beat it for the price.

Highly recommend this book for anyone trying to choose shrubs, flowers or trees for their yard. I live in the NorthEast, so this was very helpful for me but they have them in other regional areas as well. Well laid out, wonderful photos and pictures as well as perfect descriptions of each plant, shrub or tree with sizing and growth rates. Wonderful book for beginners too, to learn the different options available for your planting zone (very important) and how to configure them in your yard space. Love this book!!!!!!!

This book has a fairly good listing of plants for northeastern gardens, as well as some great design ideas for a variety of lighting situations. Not the most thorough of listings, but a nice addition to my collection.

This is a really great book, I would strongly recommend to my other friends.

This book makes it so easy to visualize and plan showy and functional home landscaping by explaining the different areas, the characteristics of the plants suggested, and sunlight conditions in a yard.it is to be a gift for family who live in the Northeast (but I enjoyed reading it myself).

If you've in the Northeast, this book will prove an asset to your gardening success! Good as a gift for ur NE friends too!
