perfect condition and thank you will be looking forward to buying more of these manga.thank you again.good job

More of the tournament! This is getting so exciting. It's weird, because even though I know there'd be very little to draw a manga about if the home team lost, you still really think they're going to lose each time. That's another great thing about this manga--you love the home team partly because they DO sometimes have losses and ties, and they DO have vulnerabilities and defeats, large and small. What a great team. I wish they were real so I could go watch Deimon play. It'd be the first time I'd be interested in watching a football game, let me tell you.
