Delightful tales of an American woman in a very different culture. Jayme brings a foreign world to life by animating characters and adding humor and insight to a world that can be light years from the high tech world we know. The colorful and sometimes puzzling world of the Middle East is portrayed with a sense of respect, light hearted humor and a kind of playfulness that will entertain yet open a door on a world so far from the shores and consciousness of America. For those of you who are curious about the world of the Middle East and how a talented American woman would fit in - read on. Open your mind, open your heart and open this book. You will soon share it with friends and you might find yourself searching for a map just to locate this quizzical place in the UAE.

JAYME WAS ALWAYS EMAILING ME WITH HER OTHER GULF REPORTS AND FINALLY PUT IT ALL IN WRITING. SHE IS A WONDERFUL STORYTELLER AND AUTHOR. I HAVE KNOWN HER OVER 20 YEARS. WHEN SHE GOT MARRIED I WAS HAPPY AND SAD, HAPPY SHE WAS HAPPY AND SAD TO SEE HER STEP OFF INTO A WHOLE NEW WORLD. SHE AND JOHN ARE SO CUTE TOGETHER. I ADMIT, WE HAD OUR DOUBTS ON HIM AND SHE HAD TO PUT UP WITH A LOT OF NEGATIVITY FROM HER FRIENDS BUT SHE HAS PERSERVERED AND BLOSSOMED AND YES, JOHN TREATS HER LIKE THE QUEEN SHE IS. SHE IS MY BEST FRIEND AND I ENJOYED READING HER BOOK AND GLAD SHE PUT IT ON BOOK OR RATHER E-BOOK. I HIGHLY RECOMMEND ALL TO BUY THIS BOOK, YOU WON'T BE DISAPPOINTED.

Loved Honeymoon in Abu Dhabi, a fun read. I enjoyed Jayme's previous book "As the Butterbean's Boil" about growing up in the south in the 1950's so looked forward to reading this one. Her story is laugh out loud funny and sharing her adventure and the challenge of living in a very foreign country is fascinating. The initial chapters relating her creative online dating experience would be great stand up comedy material. Also love her down to earth storytelling and positive and open attitude as she makes personal connections with the people she meets.

Wow, what a good read this is!! All I can say is, how brave that lady is!! To take off to Abu Dhabi from a safe, homely background as described in "While the Butterbeans Boil" can only be explained by true love. This must surely be one of the few true romances achieved by dating sites on the Internet, or are there others? And the way Jayme tells the humorous side of life as an expat in such an unattractive environment just demonstrates her Joy in life and her ability to spread it around even when things get very tough! I look forward to hearing more.

I thoroughly enjoyed Jayme's candid description of her adventurous experience of finding romance and following her love to a distant land. How courageous! I laughed through many of her escapades and applauded her ability to bite her tongue when she was challenged at every turn. I would love the opportunity to see photos of some of the scenes she described. I'm looking forward to future escapades. Congratulations, Jayme!

I thoroughly enjoyed this book!! The chapters were short so I never got bored with one of them. I read the entire book within an hour as I could not put it down. Reading this book actually put me back in Abu Dhabi and I felt as though I were living the author's adventures right along with her!

I really enjoyed this book. It is well written and a very personal journey of a love affair along with a move to a very different culture. Reading about life in Abu Dhabi through Jayme's eyes and experiences has been fun and so informative and very interesting. She writes very descriptively so it is easy to see in my mind what she is describing-almost like watching a movie.

Honeymoon in Abu Dhabi will have you laughing out loud and even blushing. There were times when I found myself wanting to jump into the book in defense of the leading lady. This book is an amazing and well-told adventure in true Jayme fashion as she shares her leading man with the readers. Jayme Wills is a master storyteller!
