A Young Person's Guide To Knowing God

Synopsis

This book was especially written by Patricia St John for all young people who want to learn about God and get to know Him for themselves. Every chapter deals with a basic Christian belief and tackles some of the most searching questions the author was asked, including: Who is God and what is he like? Why is there so much suffering in the world? Wasn't I born a Christian? Does Jesus care about me? Can I really know God? Through enjoyable real-life stories, prayers and thought-provoking questions, the reader will discover what Christians believe and what friendship with Jesus can mean in their lives.

Are you looking for a book that will help you to dive head first into discovering who God is? Then this is the book for you! Patricia St. John has provided this great resource for youth that will help them to grow and learn more about seeking God and learning to find the answers in the Bible. I absolutely loved exploring God's Word through reading this book. I was impressed with the format of the book. The author did a great job in writing to a younger audience. The writings are easy to read and understand. Each chapter or section includes verses, prayers, and questions to think about. I like the fact that the author does not preach but instead teaches the youth to use the brains that God has blessed them with and to examine the Scriptures on their own to discover God's truth. This book addresses a ton of questions, with 46 chapters broken down into various categories such as Death and Beyond, Spiritual Growth, the Holy Spirit, etc. This book is sure to help the new believer as well as the veteran Christian find answers to the questions they may have about God. Truly an awesome book. (Tricia Bleu, Teens 4 Jesus Library Website) How do you get to know God? Where does he hang out? This book is a readable potted theology for youth covering the spirit's work, Christ's death and more through stories. (Youthwork Magazine) "If you like this you'll love these: Twice Freed by Patricia St. John This is an ideal companion book to present to young people who have enjoyed Patricia's stories in A young person's guide. A well written adventure romance that appeals to both boys and girls. For younger children: Take a look at Prayer is an Adventure by Patricia St. John. These are a collection of stories on the theme of prayer and God. Two stories from A young person's guide to knowing God have been illustrated throughout and produced in hardback gift editions: The Safe Place A Home For Virginia." (Catherine MacKenzie ~ Author and CF4K Editor)

This book is great! It has a bunch of short stories that illustrate spiritual truths, but they are not heavy-handed and they are well-written, so it's a pleasure to read. The stories really stick with you--both my husband and I recognized one we had heard about 10 years ago. Highly recommended as a read-aloud devotional for your family. You'll learn truths in a new way even as you pass them along to your children.

We love the short stories and the way Patricia guides the reader through the moral lesson to be learned in each one. The questions about the story are excellent ways of sharing with our children similar experiences in our own lives.

We just started our last and final year of the 5 year cycle with My Father's World for our homeschooling. This was one of the bible books and so far we have really enjoyed it - great stories and examples.
