If anyone had doubts about the impossibility of defining fascism, Aristotle Kallis's massive and comprehensive anthology reveals the Sisyphean nature of the task. He provided the best and most comprehensive presentation of fascism in all its complexities. That is no small achievement.

—Alexander De Grand, North Carolina State University, Journal of Modern Italian

Studies, 2004

Aristotle Kallis is Lecturer in Contemporary European History at the University of Bristol (UK). He is author of Fascist Ideology (2000).

A great look into fascism not just in Italy and Germany in the 1930's-40's. Kallis's research was very thorough and it shows in this book. Great for anyone wanting to learn more about fascism in its entirety. KCCO.
