Judith Miller is one of the world's leading experts in the field of antiques and collectibles. She is an expert on the BBC's hugely popular "Antiques Roadshow" and has appeared on the "Martha Stewart Show" and CNN. She has lectured extensively, including at the Victoria and Albert Museum in London and at the Smithsonian in Washington.

This is a must for any collector of Antiques. This book is very useful in determining origin and identifying the makers mark on many different items. I gave this book to my mother as a gift. My mother is a very serious collector of bottles, glass and other antiques and she said she adores this book. She found it to be very helpful.

It is hard to have a small and concise guide on such a vast subject, however I was a bit disappointed that there weren't more examples. Possibly, for a field guide without internet access, this may be helpful IF you are looking up a mark that happens to be in here.

Fantastic reference book.

This is a very valuable reference resource to add to one's reference library, especially if one is buying and selling antiques. It isn't the only reference you should have; but, it definitely is a very valuable reference.

Besides small font, excellent information.

very helpful

Aloha! As described with fast delivery. Thank You

The person I gave this to as a gift loved it and was so excited to go home and start looking up all the markings on items she's purchased at estate sales!
