The Magic Principality: A Pocket Guide to Monaco-Monte Carlo (Eringer Travel Guide) [Mar 01, 1994] Eringer Travel Guide

Since Monaco is so tiny, not many writers waste their time creating a guide book just for the principality. I found the book to be slightly outdated, but all that I had available. I didn't use any of the restaurant recommendations - those that are listed as "THE" place to be don't seem that way anymore. Add 20% price increase to all the listed tourist stops and you've updated your book. A detailed map would have been helpful, but these are available from any hotel in the tiny country.

Unfortunatley times have changed since this book was made and this guide wansn't useful on our trip concerning where to eat and to go out in the evening and night. It was obviously very out of date.
